Dear Jesse

I wanted to let you know how happy the ICJ has been with the working relationship we have with Pomengranite, from coming up with the great new design for our website to the responsiveness of your whole team whenever we have a question or issue.

Updating our website was a challenge for us – we ran a highly competitive process and feel that we really made the right decision to go with Pomegranite. They made the whole process reassuring and straightforward. We are delighted with the final version, which is more dynamic, has more functionality and is easier to use than the one we were previously using.

The training we were given on using the site was comprehensive and we have shared and referred to this on many occasions. Knowing we have reach back to Pomegranite if ever there is an issue – and that the team is always responsive – has been great.

As an NGO, we also feel that the ethos of Pomegranite matches our mandate and they have really accepted and worked within our constraints.

With best wishes

Sarah Le Mesurier

Director of External Relations
